Further, to make the scope of this directory more extensive, efforts have been made to incorporate contact details of major ICAR institutes, SAUs, various departments of Govt. of Madhya Pradesh and other stakeholders of the university.

This directory has been compiled carefully from the best available sources of information, but it is subject to modification due to frequent changes in the staff position and their contact details. Hence, it is requested to communicate us any change or error in the directory; so that the same can be updated in the next edition.

I hope this directory will be very useful for various officers, scientists, students, farmers as well as all those related with agriculture research, education and development for their smooth communication. I personally admire the painstaking efforts made by Officer In-charge, Information and Printing Centre, Directorate of Extension Services in compilation of this document.
